

Short bio Tiago Pinto:

Born on the 2nd of February of 1984 in Santiago do Cacém (Setúbal, Portugal), is a Registered Nurse in a Family Health Unit in Oporto

Master degree in Health Education by Oporto Medical School (2012), postgraduate in Health Education (Public Health branch) by Oporto Medical School (2007) and in Clinical Communication Skills by the same institution (2008). Is also Counselor in Breastfeeding by OMS/UNICEF since 2007. Between 2009 and 2012 worked as part-time professor in Oporto Nursing School in the 1st, 3rd and 4th years of the License in Nursing and in the 1st year of Master in Maternal Health and Obstetrics Nursing in some areas as “nursing sciences introduction”, “family health”, “community health” and “clinical communication skills”. Had been counsellor for the Health Ministry (2011) for the field of information systems development in primary health care. Author of many keynote speeches in the fields of health education, clinical research and information systems in PHC. Had participated in scientific meetings focused on the policies and health systems in the latin countries. Trainer in health and PHC research and business intelligence in health. Actually is concluding a Post-graduation in Information Management and Marketing Intelligence in Oporto Business School and coordinates the Research & Knowledge Department of portuguese National Association of Family Health Units, in which is also member of the Directors Board and Advisory Board.