

Short Bio

ANTONI PERIS GRAO, MD., P.H.M.

Member of European Forum for Primary Care

Participant in PRIPHECI and different EFPC working groups.

Member of EFPC Biannual Conference Scientific Committee in Pisa (2010), Gothenburg (2012) and Barcelona (2014) conferences.

CASAP Manager

CASAP is a public consortia running a Primary Care Team and a Primary Care Emergency Unit. Our aims include developing both a highly resolute Primary Care increasing accessibility and service basket and new professional roles.

We have presented our experience in different European meetings, mainly EFPC, EHMA and IJIC meetings, but also in scientific societies meetings such as:

- Day of study on substitution of care- Vereniging van Wijkgezondheidscentra, Brussels, 24th September 2011
- Strategies to improve resolution in Primary Care. EFPC Workshop (Istanbul, September 2013)
- 3rd International Conference "Enhancing the capacity of the health system in the field of management" (organized by Republican Center of Health development, Ministry of Health, Astana, November 2011)
- Kohom (Croatian Family Doctor's Association) 2014 meeting (Sibenik, may 2014).

Others

Born in Barcelona, 1960.

MD, 1983.

Specialist in Family and Community Medicine, 1990

Master on Public Health, (Universitat de Barcelona, 1995).

Degree on Quality Management (Fundació Avedis Donabedian, 1997)

Vice President Catalan Family and Community Medicine Society (CAMFIC) from 1997 to 2003.

Degree on Primary Care Management (Barcelona University, 2006).

Participant in Global Health Leadership Forum (Public Health School Berkeley University and Health Economics Department Pompeu Fabra University, 2007).

Representative for EHMA's Primary Care Special Interest Group since 2009.

Member of scientific and organizing committees for CAMFIC, EHMA and EFPC.

Member of Bsalut, association for Research on Innovation and Managing in Health Services.

Consultant for OMS Europe (2009) in Kirgizstan on Emergency Care Services Organisation.

Consultant for Gessaworld (2002) in Panama on Rural Health and preventive programmes.

Skills

Developing strategies

Team building